Early breakfast and early start for sightseeing to visit the spectacular National Park of Kulen mountain. Kulen is considered by Khmers to be the most sacred mountain in Cambodia and it is a popular place for domestic visitors during weekends and festivals. The hill is used as the ancient capital city II in AD 802 to declared himself as god king and announced independence from Java, then giving birth to present day Cambodia.

Lunch time (your own account)

After lunch, we will start to visit prasat Banteay Srey-the Citadel of the Women. Banteay Srei is an exquisite miniature; a fairy palace in the heart of an immense and mysterious forest; the very thing that Grimm delighted to imagine, and that every child's heart has yearned after, but which mature years have sadly proved too lovely to be true. And here it is, in the Cambodian forest at Banteay Srei, carved not out of the stuff that dreams are made of, but of solid sandstone.

We will stop by the roadside to see how sugar is processed from the palm tree before continuing on our way to the Pre Rup temple. Pre Rup is located at northeast of Srah Srang and 500 meters (1,640 feet) south of the south end of the East Baray. An entrance and exit the monument from the east entrance. To climb to the upper terrace use the east stairway; it is slightly less steep than the others.. Return to hotel,

Day3 - Angkor Thom (Sought gate, Bayon, Lipper King & Elephant terrace), Ta Prohm, & The Angkor Wat temple (B)

This morning, we will go to visit the city of the Angkor Thom, it is an almost square city surrounded by 8 meter high walls a little over 12 kilometers long with five impressive gopura gates providing access to the city. The city's name translates to "large city" or "great city". King Jayavarman VII made Angkor Thom the new capital of the Khmer Kingdom after driving out the ...

Then continue to visit the temple tree – Ta Prohm temple, The so called 'Tomb Raider Temple', Ta Prohm is cloaked in dappled shadow, its crumbling towers and walls locked in the slow muscular embrace of vast root systems. Undoubtedly the most atmospheric ruin at Angkor, Ta Prohm should be high on the hit list of every visitor. Its appeal lies in the fact that, unlike the other monuments of Angkor, it has been swallowed by the jungle, and looks very much the way most of the monuments of Angkor appeared when European explorers first stumbled upon them.

Lunch time (your own account)

At afternoon, we will continue to visit the temple in World Wonder List which is called the “Angkor Wat” temple. Angkor Wat, in its beauty and state of preservation, is unrivaled. Its mightiness and magnificence bespeak a pomp and a luxury surpassing that of a Pharaoh or a Shah Jahan, an impressiveness greater than that of the Pyramids, an artistic distinctiveness as fine as that of the Taj Mahal. Angkor Wat is located about six kilometers (four miles) north of Siem Reap, south of Angkor Thom. Entry and exit to Angkor Wat can only be accessed from its west gate. Then return to the hotel, take shower, then go for dinner. Dinner time (your own account)

Day4 - Floating Village @ Kampong Phlok & Transfer to Siem Reap Airport (B)

Last day, Breakfast at hotel then check out from hotel, after that transfer to visit the famous floating village of the Kompong Phluk is a cluster of three villages of stilted houses built within the floodplain about 16 km southeast of Siem Reap. The villages are primarily Khmer and have about 3000 inhabitants between them. Flooded mangrove forest surrounds the area and is home to a variety of wildlife including crab-eating macaques. During the dry season when the lake is low, the buildings in the villages seem to soar atop their 6-meter stilts exposed by the lack of water. At this time of year many of the villagers move out onto the lake and build temporary houses.
